READ THE FOLLOWING PASSAGE AND THEN ANSWER THE QUESTIONS BELOW:

On the first day of fifth grade, Ali stood in front of the board. He felt confused about the new art assignment. He was unsure how to draw the perfect portrait.

Ali usually liked to keep to himself and found comfort in drawing colorful sketches of animals in his sketchbook. Today, his teacher wanted them to create a "Mirror Moment" poster. It had to include their hidden talent. Ali looked at his hand drawn picture of a lion. He started to panic a little. Would it blend in with the others? He remembered his teacher's words: "Be proud of what makes you stand out." Ali adjusted his glasses quickly. He decided to be strong and outgoing. He walked in front of the class to introduce his project. When he finished, the whole class clapped loudly. Ali smiled widely and gave him a thumb-up .
